A Shortcut to Local Markets in Brazil

360 Madison Ave., 17th Floor
New York City

Wednesday, May 30, 2007
11:30 a.m. – 2:00 p.m.
Lunch will be served

Panelists from Banco Itau, Unibanco and Banco Votorantim, among others, will discuss specific Brazilian local market instruments and investments, including equity and interest rate derivatives and fixed income products, with a goal of giving investors an understanding of the Brazil local markets paradigm. More information on panelists and presentations to follow.

This presentation is part of a series that EMTA is pleased to sponsor on Local Markets opportunities.
