

The Consul General of Brazil in New York Ambassador Luiz Felipe de Seixas Corrêa and
The Bronx Museum of the Arts

Cordially invite you and a guest to a cocktail reception with live Brazilian music for the launching of the book

Brazilian Artists in New York Museums

A concise survey of the growing presence of Brazilian artists in New York since the early twentieth century, including works in the collections of major museums in New York. Published by the Ministry of Foreign Relations.

Thursday, December 15, 2011

6:30 pm – 8:30 pm

The Bronx Museum of the Arts

1040 Grand Concourse at 165th Street

(Subway B or D to 167th Street)

RSVP

cultural.novayork@itamaraty.gov.br

All in attendance will receive a copy of the book Brazilian Artists in New York Museums, edited, and with an essay, by Sérgio Bessa, director of curatorial and education programs at The Bronx Museum of the Arts. Introduction by Paulo Venâncio Filho, curator, critic and professor of art history and theory at Escola de Belas Artes, Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro.