SIOBHAN MORDEN (MODERATOR)
Santander Us Capital Markets

Siobhan Morden heads Latin America Fixed Income Sovereign Strategy at Santander US Capital Markets after the recent merger with Amherst Pierpont Securities and more than 30 years of experience. This reflects a similar role at Nomura and previously at Jefferies with a focus on distressed and stressed sovereign credits and RBS where she was Head of Latin America Strategy across local FX, rates and external sovereign bond markets.

Previously, she was Head of Research & Strategy for North America and Head of Emerging Markets Latin America Research & Strategy at ABN AMRO. Prior to that, she was Head of Emerging Markets Research at Caboto (Banca Intesa), and a Senior Fixed Income Analyst at both PaineWebber and Santander Investment Securities.

Ms. Morden received an MA from New York University, a BA from Boston College and a graduate certificate in social economics and cooperative law from the Universidad del Pais Vasco in San Sebastian, Spain, where she was a Fulbright Scholar. She has lived and traveled extensively throughout Latin America, including Ecuador, Mexico and Paraguay and specializes in countries entering or exiting economic crisis. She is also widely quoted across national and international media outlets as a leading expert on Latin America.

SARAH GARCIA
J.P. Morgan Asset Management

Sarah Garcia is an Emerging Markets Sovereign Research Analyst within the Global Fixed Income, Currency & Commodities (GFICC) group at J.P. Morgan Asset Management. She covers countries in Central America, Caribbean, and Eastern Europe as well as supporting macroeconomic research broadly.

Prior to this, she was on the portfolio management team at J.P. Morgan Wealth Management, executing discretionary portfolio strategies for high net-worth clients.

She holds a B.A. in Economics and Hispanic Studies from the University of Pennsylvania.
