Charles Blitzer (Blitzer Consulting)

Lee Buchheit

Augusto de la Torre (Columbia University)

Anna Gelpern (Georgetown University)

Topics Include:

- What are the lessons learned from the recent Argentine and Ecuadorian restructurings, and will Zambia, Lebanon and others follow similar paths?
- How should the role of the IMF evolve in future restructurings?
- How well is the recent trend of ad hoc creditor committees working?
- What have we learned about the creditor-engagement process?
- What are the other main challenges to future restructurings?
- Did the CACs work, and are the Redesignation and Pacman loopholes ameliorated by new CAC language?
- Does the pandemic warrant a new HIPC (Highly Indebted Poor Country) initiative matched by bondholder forgiveness?

Registration fee for EMTA Members: US$50 / US$495 for Non-members.
