

Patrick Campbell
Eaton Vance Management

Patrick Campbell is a vice president of Eaton Vance Management and a portfolio manager on Eaton Vance's emerging markets team. He is responsible for buy and sell decisions, portfolio construction and risk management for the firm's emerging markets strategies. Since 2018 he has been responsible for the analysis of macroeconomics, politics and financial markets of Latin America and the management of regional investments in various emerging markets portfolios. Prior to 2018 Patrick held similar responsibilities within Emerging and Frontier Asia.

His investment work has included a wide variety of instruments (including but not limited to local and external debt, currencies, interest rates and volatility) and special situations (Argentina and Suriname restructurings and offshore Icelandic Krona resolution).

Patrick has spoken on a number of industry panels including EMTA Panel on Peru and IIF on Central America. His commentary has been featured in outlets such as The Wall Street Journal, Les Echos and The Irish Times.

Patrick began his career in the investment management industry with Eaton Vance in 2008. He earned a B.A. from Boston College. He is a member of the CFA Society Boston and is a CFA charterholder.