Emerging Markets Debt Trading Volume Surveys

The most comprehensive source of information on trading volume and liquidity in Emerging Markets debt instruments, compiled from the industry's most active traders.

EMTA's Volume Surveys measure trading volume in five major categories: Brady bonds, non-Brady bonds (sovereign and corporate), loans, local instruments (local currency and U.S. dollar-denominated), debt options and warrants. The data, collected by EMTA from 70+ leading financial institutions worldwide, reflect trading in debt instruments originating in 85 emerging countries. All data are tabulated and indexed in easy-to-read charts for quick reference.

Surveys Include:

- Trading volume indexed by issuing country and instrument type
- Summary of Survey's most important highlights
- Analyses of market trends by instrument type and geographic region

To order one or more Volume Surveys, please complete and return the form below.
