

Emiliano Mendez-Gallione
Vice Chair
Citi

Emiliano Mendez Gallione is a Managing Director at Citi where he runs the EM Credit Trading Flow Desk in New York. Focusing on Latin America, Emiliano leads the market-making efforts for sovereign and corporate credits.

Prior to joining Citi in 2013, Emiliano worked as a Credit Trader for Morgan Stanley (2010-2013), where he focused on both investment grade and high-yield Latin American corporate bonds. Emiliano began his career in 1999 in Argentina, working for banks and pension funds before being relocated to New York in 2006 while working for Banco Santander. Over the course of his 18 year career in Emerging Markets, Emiliano has held a number of roles including Investment Management, Trading, and Structured Products.

He holds a Bachelor of Business Administration from Universidad Catolica Argentina and earned a Master in Finance from Universidad Torcuato Di Tella. Emiliano is married with two children and lives in Manhattan, New York.